2B. Experience of Applicant, Subrecipient(s), and Other Partners

1. Describe your organization’s (and subrecipient(s) if applicable) experience in effectively utilizing federal funds and performing the activities proposed in the application.

YWCA Bucks County has been able to successfully utilize funds to support housing initiatives including Rapid Rehousing, Homelessness Prevention and Housing Planning as sub-recipients of ESG Federal 17-19, Federal ESG-CV 20-22, DCED ESG-CV 20-22, BERA 20-22. Through these grants, the YWCA has served the chronically homeless, victims of domestic violence and human trafficking, women and families who have lost their jobs and incomes as a result of COVID-19, and individuals and families at imminent risk of being homeless. Through case management, rental assistance, financial assistance and other supportive services, the YWCA has been able to successfully transition clients from homelessness into permanent housing, or assist them to maintain stable housing using a Housing First, client-centered approach.

Despite a challenging climate which includes limited affordable housing options, low vacancy rates, an eviction moratorium and a multitude of barriers faced by our clients, the YWCA has been successful in meeting programmatic goals including households served within budget and in the timetable allotted by each funding stream. YWCA has been able to achieve these goals through a coordinated effort with our organization and other partners within the CoC as well as using creative approaches to service delivery.

2. Describe your organization’s (and subrecipient(s) if applicable) experience in leveraging Federal, State, local and private sector funds.

As the only YWCA located in Bucks County, we have a successful track record of delivering high impact programs that meet a wide range of needs. For more than 65 years, the YWCA has been a valued and trusted leader in the realm of human services. We are recognized in Bucks County for our creative and innovative programs aimed at helping economically disadvantaged and underserved Bucks County women, children and families build better lives directly in their own neighborhoods and schools and within local low-income apartment complexes where we operate community-responsive Family Centers. The YWCA has a strong history of leveraging state, local and private sector funds. For over two decades, the YWCA has held contracts with both Bucks County Children and Youth Social Services Agency and the Bucks County Drug and Alcohol Commission totally over $800K annually to provide programs to strengthen families that lead to self-sufficiency.

Sustaining its many human services programs and leveraging our resources is one of the YWCA of Bucks County’s strengths. This is a result of a combination of efforts and accomplishments that include, but are not limited to, (1) a history of 65 years dedicated to implementing and sustaining quality programs to improve the lives of the less fortunate; (2) a strong and vibrant network of public and private community collaborators with whom the YWCA collectively works for the betterment of the community; and (3) the consistent pursuit of funding from federal, state and local government, from community and business resources and from private foundations. The YWCA will utilize all of its public and private resources as well as our combined strengths to ensure that a reliable stream of funding is available for the YWCA programs that underserved populations in Bucks County rely on for assistance in improving their lives and building hope for the future.

3. Describe your organization’s (and subrecipient(s) if applicable) financial management structure.

The YWCA of Bucks County is a 501 (c)(3) nonprofit organization meeting the needs of women, girls and families in the county since 1954. The organization is led by a governing Board of Directors comprised of women from diverse backgrounds, professions and skills. The Board is a reflection of the community in which we serve. Staff leadership is led by the executive director, associate director, program directors and the finance director who have over 100 years of combined experience working in the nonprofit, human services sector. In addition, the YWCA employs an experienced and diverse program and administrative staff who are committed to empowering women and strengthening families in Bucks County.

The YWCA of Bucks County adopted a board approved Financial Manual that details the financial policies and procedures of the organization. It serves as an informational guide, training tool, reference and means of ensuring quality and continuity of service in the organization. The Financial Manual is maintained for the Board of Directors and YWCA Staff. All members of the Finance Committee of the Board of Directors and all management- and finance-related office staff of YWCA receive a copy of the Financial Manual. The YWCA has developed standards and required procedures to define the minimum level of acceptable service for YWCA work. It is expected that any YWCA program or committee will provide quality service to YWCA members and the public. Thus, by ensuring that all YWCA programs and committees are providing service in compliance with these standards, the YWCA can better serve its members and the public and guard the integrity of the organization.

The standards define the purpose to be achieved and/or the quality of service to be provided. Each standard is followed by certain Required Procedures, which define the acceptable methodology of complying with the standard. Standards and required procedures are outlined for fiscal controls, office procedures, contract invoicing and investment fund oversight. In addition to these policies and procedures, the YWCA of Bucks County complies with all federal, state and local laws and requirements. Annually, the organization completes an independent audit of its finances and files the Form 990 with the government. Accountability and transparency are instrumental components of our financial leadership, management and oversight.

3B. Project Description

1. Provide a description that addresses the entire scope of the proposed project.

YWCA Rapid Rehousing (RRH) program expects to serve up to five households with a combination of short and medium term rental assistance and supportive services. Our goal is to prioritize women heads of household as they transition into permanent housing successfully in the least amount of time to secure their stability. On average, the YWCA expects to work with families for nine months with the option for a shorter or longer stay depending on individual needs. YWCA RRH program will prioritize woman who are homeless due to domestic violence, human trafficking, and economic insecurity. YWCA will employ the Housing First Model to offer RRH to permanent, affordable housing as quickly as possible for women and families experiencing homelessness.

RRH will support participating households by (a) helping participants locate and secure affordable and suitable housing (b) overcoming barriers to obtaining and maintaining stable housing. The following articulates the YWCA’s proposed process for ensuring that participants achieve secure housing:

- ¿ Recruitment and Referral - Active coordination and partnership with the Bucks County Housing Link to identify homeless population through HMIS
- ¿ Intake/Assessment – Assessment process to determine rapid-rehousing assistance, barriers to housing, and financial assistance planning
- ¿ Housing Location/Preference/Placement - Active housing search, placement, and linkages to supports
- ¿ Case Management/Supportive Services - Ongoing reassessment and adjustments directed toward securing stable housing
- ¿ Outcomes measurement – Review data to ensure programmatic goals are being achieved

Through additional services offered through the YWCA and partnering organizations which include workforce development, financial literacy, child care for dependents, and access to food pantries, the YWCA RRH program will significantly reduce barriers to housing or stability risks. Each participating household will be assigned case management services. The focus of case management is directed toward assisting household participants in resolving any immediate crisis, provide linkages to services as appropriate, and acquisition of stable housing.

As a part of case management services, each household will have access to the YWCA Employment Services staff. This resource is designed to help unemployed clients secure stable employment, and to support skill development in clients that are employed but are in need of workplace advancement and increased wages. As an additional resource, participating households will have access to financial literacy education [including workshops that cover active saving, smart- budgeting and building/rebuilding credit history]. Participating households will engage in weekly case-management meetings in an effort to actively assess and update housing plans and to adjust the levels of the interventions and supports described.

4A. Supportive Services for Participants

1. Describe how program participants will be assisted to obtain and remain in permanent housing.

RRH participants will receive a comprehensive array of support services in addition to rental assistance to ensure clients have developed the skills and support networks needed to obtain and remain in permanent housing. Staff will provide oversight and case management to all RRH participants. These services include, but are not limited to, assessment of needs, case management, education services, employment assistance and job training, Connection to mainstream benefits, food, counseling services, life skills training, and others services as identified.

YWCA will also connect participants with additional resources through our partners including legal aid, mental health, outpatient health services, and substance abuse treatment. YWCA staff will coordinate all services and create individual service plans with each participant based on their unique needs. Case Managers will monitor and track progress towards goals, provide support and guidance to increase the likelihood for success.

2. Describe the specific plan to coordinate and integrate with other mainstream health, social services, and employment programs for which program participants may be eligible.

YWCA Bucks County is a member of the Continuum of Care (COC) for Housing in Bucks County. The YWCA will work collaboratively with other organizations, both internal and external to the COC to connect clients with existing resources and mainstream benefits. The YWCA will outreach to specific organizations who work with women who are experiencing a housing crisis due to general homelessness, domestic violence, drug and alcohol, and human trafficking. These partners will include, but are not limited to, Housing and Community Development Department, Family Service Association, Bucks County Opportunity Council, Bucks County Housing Group, Bucks County Homeless Shelter, Valley Youth House, A Woman's Place, Libertae, Worthwhile Wear, and the Bucks County Coalition Against Trafficking.

Case management staff will connect RRH participants with the YWCA's Employment Advisor who will work directly with each participant on a weekly basis to increase their employment and income which will lead to permanent housing. We are committed to building family economic security for women who are experiencing a housing crisis and need to obtain and sustain a decent paying job while accessing financial knowledge and skills to support their longer-term goals through the YWCA's Overcoming Barriers to Employment and Financial Stability Program.

Overcoming Barriers to Employment and Financial Stability uses an individualized approach in providing services in a culturally sensitive manner. The people served by the YWCA are confronted with multiple barriers to employment and require more intensive and individualized services. Studies have shown that employment training programs are more effective when services are targeted to meet individual needs. The YWCA program assesses each individual participant to determine their aptitudes and skills. The program focuses on four areas: Basic Skills, Education, Pre-Employment Training, and Job Placement. The program offers a combination of one on one employment services and small group workshops. Participants will attain greater levels of self-sufficiency for themselves and their families by learning how to overcome barriers to employment, secure a decent job and manage their finances. The YWCA offers these services, along with translation services in languages including Spanish, Arabic, Hindi and Russian, at our Family Center locations.
